Award nominations are due by July 31st.

2015 NJAFM SCHOLARSHIP FOR NEW JERSEY LOCAL OFFICIALS

Application Deadline: July 31, 2015

Are you a local official involved in Floodplain Management?
Have questions about flood awareness, mitigation, mapping or regulations?
Attend the NJAFM Conference on October 20-22, 2015!

The New Jersey Association for Floodplain Management (NJAFM) is supporting the education of NJ local officials involved in floodplain management by offering scholarships to the 2015 NJAFM Conference being held October 20-22, 2015 at Bally's in Atlantic City, NJ.

The scholarship is for the registration cost of the 2-day conference ($____value). Travel and lodging costs remain the responsibility of the attendee.

The conference is intended for attendees of diverse backgrounds including local floodplain administrators, CRS coordinators, planners, code officials, engineers, emergency management officials and other professionals involved in floodplain management. The annual conference is a great opportunity to network and exchange ideas while acquiring the latest technical, regulatory and flood risk information.

To apply for a scholarship, you MUST be a NJAFM Local Official Member in good-standing or have recently submitted a membership application. A local official is considered to be an individual involved in the flood risk field or working in the capacity of mayor, floodplain administrator, CRS coordinator, code official or emergency manager. The individual MUST work for a local governmental jurisdiction.

For more information on the conference, visit the NJAFM 2015 Conference webpage. To become a NJAFM Student member, register online at www.njafm.org.

All interested NJAFM members should complete and submit an application by July 31, 2015. Scholarship winners will be notified by September 1, 2015. Scholarship preference will be given to first-time attendees.
